Guidelines for Application Documents

To be considered for the position you must address all of the:

1. Required Skills and Knowledge and;
2. Desirable Skills and Knowledge

Failing to address each criteria in the above by giving detailed examples regarding your experience will eliminate you from an interview.

Meeting the desirable criteria will enhance your application.

1. Addressing the Selection Criteria

Please do not apply unless you have completed this section, your application will not be considered.

- Address each criteria separately.
- Use a bold heading to identify each criteria.
- Describe how you meet each point with a few short paragraphs.
- Give example of projects, tasks, work experience and how you were involved to support your description of how you meet the criteria.
- Remember to include transferable skills and knowledge – sometimes your experience isn't directly linked to the point, but you have no doubt gained skills and knowledge in one context that could be applied in others.
- Try to be as clear as possible on how you meet the criteria.
- If you don't feel that you meet all the Requirements of the Position, respond as well as you can and indicate a willingness to pursue further professional development where needed.

2. Resume (or CV)

Resumes should contain the following basic information:

- Full name;
- Date of birth (optional);

- Your address;
- Contact telephone numbers (work, after hours, mobile);
- Education / qualifications;
- Short courses;
- Work experience / employment history (in brief);
- Personal interests and hobbies (optional); and
- 2 work referees of a Manager who has supervised you (names and phone numbers).
- Any other relevant supporting information.

Interviews

If your written application is successful, you will be invited to attend an interview.

Prior to the interview, review any information you have about the position, organisation and local area, as well as remind yourself of your application.

On the day of the interview:

- Present yourself well – dress nicely for the interview.
- Arrive 10 minutes early.
- Don't assume that all members of the interview panel have read your application. They probably have, but tell them everything again.

Points to Remember

- Do your research to find out what you can about the organisation.
- Emphasise your interest in and suitability for this position.
- Set out your application clearly, using headings to break up the information.
- If possible, type your application (or make sure that it is very neatly written). Keep a copy of your application and the advertisement.
- Do not assume that the selection panel knows anything about you or how you meet the prerequisite and desirable criteria. You will need to clearly show your skills, abilities and experience.
- Describe what you have accomplished rather than describing your responsibilities.
- Describe your abilities, potential and things you can do as part of this position by using your past experience as proof to support the claims you make.
